

Kim Hudson White

Not only is Kim Hudson White President and CEO of River City Company, but she is serving her sisterhood as Co-Chair of the Delta Alpha Chapter of Chi Omega's Centennial and House Fundraising Campaign.

Kim pledged Chi Omega in 1980 and served as Homecoming Chair and GH as an undergraduate. After graduation, she left Chattanooga for nearly twenty years. Upon her return to the Scenic City fifteen years ago, Kim jumped back into organizations that meant the most to her, which included Chi Omega and the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

Chi Omega is near and dear to Kim's heart. One of the sayings she strives to live by is, "To whom much is given, much is to be expected." She credits Chi Omega with giving her much! And has worked to pay it forward, by mentoring many Chi Omegas, setting up an annual scholarship fund, given to a Chi Omega who is involved in student and community activities, and she is now playing an active role in planning for and raising money for a new Chi Omega house.

Kim also serves as an "unofficial" event coordinator for her Chi Omega sisters, organizing yearly gatherings at an annual football game and at Eleusinian. The group has grown over the past 10 years to an initial 6 to over 20 and continues to grow each year!

"Chi Omega gave me a sense of belonging," says White. "It's where I first developed leadership skills and learned how important it was to get involved in organizations and causes bigger than myself. It's where I learned the importance of working with and supporting other women. I credit Chi Omega in being a life changing experience for me. I wouldn't be who I am, or where I am without that amazing foundation of support and sisterhood."
